

Armed robbery suspect arrested in W. Seattle

Jun 5, 2008

WEST SEATTLE - A suspect in the armed robbery a White Center store has been arrested by Seattle police with assistance from a SWAT team and command unit.

Officers initially lost track of the suspect following a foot chase in the vicinity of 16th Street SW and SW Henderson Street.

He was reported to be armed with a dark-colored handgun and was wearing a purple or blue hoody with gray pants.

The suspect got away with cash and video games.

More officers and a SWAT team were brought in. Officers combed the area between White Center and West Seattle and made the arrest shortly thereafter
